TWO WINS, THREE RUNNERS UP AT HAVERING SPORTS AWARDS

There were wins in two categories and three runners up for club members at the Havering Sports Council Awards presentations held at Upminster Golf Club on Monday night.

Coach, Official and Committee member Sue Deane won the Sports Volunteer of the Year Award, with last year's winner Katie Ennis the runner up for her volunteering both at athletics and ice hockey.

Kieran O'Hara won the Disability Sports Competitor Award for the second time and Rebecca O'Rourke, who won the trophy last year, was runner up in this category this year.

Stephanie Okoro was runner up in the Junior Sports Competitor Award, which she won last year. Well done to all!
